Groovin' on Green season finale is Friday

The Groovin' on the Green series finale is this Friday, Aug. 31, featuring a performance by Angela Reign.

Groovin' on the Green events are held by the Greater Cashiers Area Merchants Association at the Village Commons in Cashiers and are free of charge. Participants will want to bring a chair or blanket, their favorite drink and/or food and prepare for a good time.

Reign hails from Roswell, Ga., will perform from 6 to 8 p.m.

Reign's "Livin' in Between" album is a tapestry of country goodness, woven with funky-tonk fun, heartbreaking ballads and purposeful anthems.

As a child, Reign was a talented singer, dancer and actress, and became a standout performer in theatre, musicals and choir. As an adult, she decided to combine her many talents in an effort to do the thing that feeds her very soul, entertain audiences of all ages.

To see her perform is to know that she lives to be on-stage. She pours her heart and soul into every note of every song. Reign leaves the stage utterly spent and with her fans delighted.

She is now realizing her dream, performing for thousands, writing and recording original music, working with amazing musicians and entertaining fans around the world; all with the support of a truly amazing extended team.

She has been nominated for Country Female Artist of the Year at the Georgia Music Awards and is a semifinalist for the Georgia Country Music Awards. She is also up for a Georgia Music Video of the Year award.
